To Whom It May Concern

Ref: Ian Montgomery

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have known Ian for the past three decades and have had numerous business dealings with him over the years through his former companies; I am delighted to provide a reference and recommendation for him.

During this time, Ian has established himself to be a person with great industry expertise, founded from his years at Lufthansa Cargo.

His knowledge of the African market paved the way for our business relationship in the more recent years and he fulfilled his commitments with success and energy.

I would happily provide further information should any potential employer or business partner be considering working or engaging Ian.

Kind regards,

Desmond Vertannes
